The Life Performance Inventory is a tool to assist you to determine how well you are caring for yourself. Answer each question with the greatest honesty with which you are capable. Once you answer the questions, the scoring procedure will be provided at the end of the inventory. To keep from prejudicing your answers, score the inventory only after you have completed it. (For those taking the inventory from my website, I encourage you to print out the inventory so that you have it for future reference and can take stock of your personal growth and self-care!) Take this to your health! —Dr. Brian Hooper

Now that you have answered each question, you will determine the significance of your answers. To do this go back and count up the number of times you select answers with either a, b, c, or d next to them, and then multiply by the number indicated. Use the chart below to calculate your total score.

Total (a) _____ x 3 = _____

Total (b) _____ x 2 = _____

Total (c) _____ x 1 = _____

Total Score = _____

Your total score will give you an idea of how well you are doing in caring for yourself. The lower the score, the better. (If you are taking this inventory as you browse my website and determine that you would like to lower your score, I would be very happy to assist you in determining how you will do that and offer you support in the process.
